

Kindergarten: French Immersion Program Gradual Entry Plan

All children will attend everyday of the gradual entry period; September 5, 6, 7, 10, 11, 12, 2018
Kindergarten students will not attend on Tuesday, September 4, 2018.

First Week

The classes are divided into small groups for the first Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The groups rotate during the first three days so that children experience all three important aspects of the day in a small group (arrival and early snack, outside big recess and lunch, and afternoon snack and dismissal). This way, the children are integrated right away and will learn about arrival, the whole school lunch time with eating and play, the final recess, and dismissal. Additionally, they will get to interact with the Principal, Vice-Principal, French teacher, Librarian, Educational Assistants, computer teacher and other staff members, making them feel more secure on the playground and helping them to become better familiar with their new school.

Second Week

Monday and Tuesday of the second week all children will have the opportunity to have kindergarten experiences with their whole class for a shortened time. Children will become familiar with the general routine of the day. The adjusted schedule allows teachers to be available, along with the lunch time supervisor, during lunch time on these days to help establish routines. The shortened day provides opportunity for teachers to meet with families.
