

Keating Family Literacy Bingo

Family Literacy Day is January 27th and to celebrate we are having a family literacy bingo event. Complete the sheet with your family and for each completed line (horizontal, vertical, or diagonal) you will get a ballot entry for a family dinner at Adrianna's (value of $50). Contest closes February 10th and the winner will be announced on February 11, 2022. Completed Bingo sheets can be handed into the Library Learning Commons.

Have a "screen free" night and turn off all devices.	Use a calendar and count how many weekends there are until each family member's birthday.	Tell Knock-Knock jokes together while driving in the car.	Go for a walk together and talk about your neighbourhood.	Visit your local library as a family.
Write a letter or email together to brighten someone's day!	Take turns opening up a book and making up a story using just the pictures.	Make a shopping list together.	Play a game of Rock, Paper, Scissors.	At the dinner table, take turns sharing what the best part of each person's day was.
Do some MAD Libs as a family.	Find a new recipe and make it together.	FREE	Look at family photos together and talk about changes.	Get outside as a family and participate in one physical activity together.
Go online as a family and look up a country of interest. Learn about their traditions and celebrations.	Create a silly poem with your family.	Build an obstacle course through your family room and draw a map on how to go through it from start to finish.	Do a jigsaw puzzle together.	Read a bedtime story then take turns creating a new ending for the story.
Read the local newspaper together and find one upcoming event in your community.	Pop some popcorn and play a family board game.	Each family member makes up their own story and presents it to the rest of the family.	Build paper finger puppets and make up a play.	Have a "family favourites" night and read everyone's favourite picturebook.
