

Open-Air Library

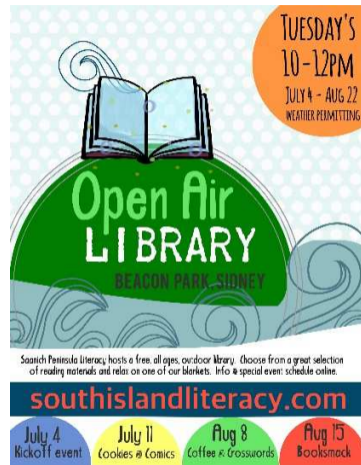

Come enjoy the fresh ocean air and free books this summer at the Open-Air Library in Sidney, BC! Everyone is welcome to drop by and select from a wide range of reading materials, and relax with a good book on our cozy blankets. Reading materials are available for all ages and on July 11th we'll have cookies and comics to entice you! FREE!

Dates: Tuesdays from July 4th - August 22nd (weather permitting)

Time: 10 - 12 pm

Location: Beacon Park, Sidney next to the outdoor Amphitheatre

Who: Saanich Peninsula Literacy - southislandliteracy.com

A promotional poster for the Open Air Library. At the top, an illustration of an open book with pages blowing in the wind sits atop a green globe. The text 'Open Air LIBRARY' is written in green and white on the globe, with 'BEACON PARK, SIDNEY' in smaller green letters below it. In the top right corner, an orange circle contains the text 'TUESDAY'S 10-12PM JULY 4 - AUG 22 WEATHER PERMITTING'. Below the globe, a blue banner with white text reads 'Saanich Peninsula Literacy hosts a free, all ages, outdoor library. Choose from a great selection of reading materials and relax on one of our blankets. Info & special event schedule online.' Below this banner is the website 'southislandliteracy.com' in red text on a blue background. At the bottom, four colored circles represent specific events: a blue circle for 'July 4 Kickoff event', a yellow circle for 'July 11 Cookies & Comics', a green circle for 'Aug 8 Coffee & Crosswords', and a red circle for 'Aug 15 Booksmack'.